ROANOKE, VA., April 28.—The game this afternoon was won by Richmond by a score of 4 to 0. Revell was on the firing line for the visitors, and at times he was hit hard, the locals were unable to cross the rubber safely.
The Lawmakers touched up Morrissey pretty freely, but he kept the ball well scattered, except in the fifth inning, when three men scored. The game was a pretty one, and was hard fought by both teams, but was practically featureless, a steady game being played. The score:

LYNCHBURG, VA., April 28.—In a heavy hitting game this afternoon, Lynchburg defeated Norfolk by a score of 7 to 4. Schuman and Carroll were hit hard, but the former was the steadier in the critical stages, while he led both teams in stick work. The work of Jackson and the entire outfield for the home team, and Raley's stunts at first were features. Kirkpatrick drove a home run in the third, and his work at third was brilliant. In the ninth two passes and a single by Seftert, and a clean drive to the outfield by Fox, who was substituted for Eakins, sent two runs over the plate with two men out. The score:

LYNCHBURG, VA., April 28.—Davidson College 3, Virginia Military Institute 2. Tells the story of today's game. Davidson scored one run in each of the first three innings, but the V. M. I. batters evened up in the seventh on Davidson's bad throw. In the eighth Davidson passed Elliott to first, Beauchamp allowed him to steal second, and Bule scored the runner with a corking double.
But for his wildness Clark would be credited with pitching an exceptional fine game, as the cadets only found him for one hit. His team played a beautiful game behind him, and pulled off two neat doubles. McKee's fast fielding featured in retiring the opposing runners, and Bule lead with the stick. Davidson pitched in good form, and kept his hits scattered. Donnan's sharp work in right field robbed Davidson of two hits, and Doyle played his usual good game on second. Sherill retired the side in the ninth by a beautiful catch of Pollock's foul. The score:

WALKOVER FOR SPIDERS

Richmond College played rings around Fredericksburg College at Broad Street Park yesterday afternoon, winning by the score of 9 to 0, and could have made it worse had the team exerted itself. The game lacked excitement for the reason that it was so one-sided, but several pretty plays were made.

Until the ninth inning, D. Wright, the Spider's clever twirler, allowed no hits and let no player walk. He received in the last round, however, giving the visitors one of each. While the visitors were unable to steal a single base, the Spiders passed from first to second and on to third almost at will. Jones, who was hailed as a star box-artiste, evidently had an off day, for he was touched up freely.

The Spider did his scoring in the second, seventh and eighth innings. A very pretty double was pulled off by Fredericksburg in the fourth when Morgan took in Wright's grounder, putting out Smith at second and doubling on the batter at first.

In the second inning Ezekiel flew out to centre, but Jenkins, stealing second and going to third on Gwathmey's hit. The latter also stole second and came home on Atkins two-bagger to left field. Smith reached first on a fielder's choice, going on to second on the error of Morgan, while on the same jumble Atkins scored. When Wright went out to first, Smith passed to second, checking at home when Sheppard singled.

In the seventh, Smith went out at first, but Wright was safe on Bode's error. He stole second, went to third on Sheppard's single, and scored on Robertson's error, which advanced the batter to third. Lodge's one-base drive scored Sheppard.

In the next inning Jenkins led off with a two-bagger, passing to third when Gwathmey was put out at first. Atkins walked and stole second; Smith reached first on a fielder's choice, while Jenkins managed to tally, and Atkins passed to third. Wright also reached first on a fielder's choice, and Atkins scored, Smith going to third. The latter passed over the plate when Sheppard went out at first.

In the last inning Sheppard made a spectacular catch of a foul in front of the grandstand. The score:
